Port & Pine Creative

based in Kennebunk

How long has Port & Pine Creative been open?
July 2020

Your primary service offered:
Brand Identity Design, Website Design & Marketing Material Design

What makes P & P special?
I work closely with clients to discover what makes their business unique through a process beginning with a creative brief and a customized brand discovery questionnaire. I love working with fellow Mainers to design branding for them that celebrates their individuality and stands out in the market.

Best thing you do:
Port & Pine Creative specializes in designing powerful brand identities for makers and entrepreneurs that visually represent the heart and soul of their business.

Something people don't realize about Port & Pine?
Whether you are starting a small business in need of a logo and brand identity, or are an established company looking to elevate your marketing material, I am here to craft creative solutions that stand out and target your unique audience.
