Ooh La La— new creperie opens

Feeling like something sweet, or savory, with a French flair? Well good news: Mornings in Paris Creperie is open for business.

Located just down the driveway from the original Mornings in Paris, the new creperie is open daily from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. and serves up four savory and five sweet crepe choices (everything can be customized) along with cold brew, iced teas and regular and decaf Old Port Blend coffee.

Best of all, if you crave a specialty latte or even a glass of wine AND a crepe, you can order both at Mornings in Paris.

“You can order everything up there,” said manager John Nickulas said, “and come down and pick it up.”

Owner Paul Humphrey said the creperie can also accommodate private parties for birthdays, bridal showers, business meetings, author signings or staff appreciation events, and can accommodate larger events at their main location.

The creperie also carries a selection of packaged French cookies and Belgian waffles, as well as colorful French tea towels you'll find framed on the walls.

Busy folks can call in their orders to (207) 352-3679 and swing in and pick them up when they're ready.

With French music playing in the background, French scenes on the walls and delicious crepes, this new spot is tres magnifique!
