

BIDDEFORD CITY THEATER

How long in business?

City Theater was open from 1896 to 1963 and then reopened in 1978 under its current organization.

Primary business/service offered?

Performing arts venue with a resident community theater.

What makes your business special?

All of our performers are volunteers from the local community. We strive to partner with and highlight local organizations.

Best thing you sell/serve/do?

Beyond our award winning productions, we provide anyone a chance to be a part of a historic, fully renovated theater registered as Landmark facility by the National Trust for Preservation.

Something people don't realize about your business?

Our organization is almost entirely volunteer driven. City Theater has been named one of the top 5 theaters in all of Maine from Broadway World.
