THE ANCHOR

AUGUST 26, 2022

Enjoy these last days of summer 2022

Before we start thinking about apples and pumpkins and scarecrows, let's wring the last precious moments from Summer 2022 — a summer that was HOT HOT HOT.

So here are our suggestions for what to do to get the most out of the rest of summer:

 Get out on the water. A lot of the local tour boats come out of the water in October, so take a trip now and enjoy the views and the breezes. We love the Schooner Eleanor, Pineapple Ketch, the Rosa Rugosa and Second Chance Whale Watch for a leisurely ride (or New England Eco-Tours for a zippy ride!), but there are plenty of fishing/sport boats as well, and you can rent a zippy speed boat at one of the marinas or kayak from a few different folks to get yourself afloat.

 Eat out! Whether it's a picnic on the beach, a lobster bake at a restaurant or eating al fresco at one of our many fine dining establishments, enjoy a meal outside. You can't eat out in January!

 Spend a day at the beach. The water is still warm, the crowds are a little lighter and everyone knows that digging your toes into the sand helps sustain you during those cold winter days. So grab a book, a beach chair and towel, and settle in on the sand!

 Take a walk. The Kennebunkport Conservation Trust, Kennebunk Land Trust, Eastern Trail and Wells Reserve all have great walking paths full of flowers and fauna. Need a leisurely path easy for all? Try strolling through Hope Woods. Take advantage of the warmer temps to enjoy them all.

 Go for a ride. We love a narrated tour with Intown Trolley, but for those of you who'd prefer to go under your own steam, rent a bike at Coastal Kayak&Bike, Gorham Bike & Ski or Kayak Excursions and see the town! The kids will love the Flow Trail, created by the Arundel Conservation Trust just behind Arundel Town Hall.

 Be a tourist. This works whether or not you really are one. Even if you live here or have visited here dozens of times, take the opportunity to look at the community through fresh eyes. Pick up a souvenir (the kids would love to wear a Kennebunkport T-shirt back to school!), drive past Walker's Point, visit the pier in Cape Porpoise.

Summer will be over before we know it, so don't let these days pass you by.
