

Sanford Performing Arts Center

Owner?

Owned by the City of Sanford, operated by the Sanford School Department under the direction of Brett Williams.

How long in business?

3 years!

Primary business/service offered?

A community theater showcasing local, regional and national talent.

What makes your business special?

We are elevating the arts scene in Southern Maine by offering a stellar lineup of touring and home-grown shows sure to bring audiences of all ages to their feet.

Best thing you sell/serve/do?

Our Partners Bank Spotlight Series features a diverse offering of 11 shows featuring live music, theater, dance, comedy, and more this season, plus two school plays.

Something people don't realize about your business?

We may be located within the new Sanford High School, but we are a state-of-the-art regional theater with 860 seats open to the public. The SPAC is also available to rent for presentations by outside groups.
