WOOFSTOCK is here!

Animal Welfare Society (AWS) presents Woofstock, Southern Maine's only FREE family-friendly, dog-friendly food and beer festival. The festival takes place rain or shine Saturday, July 29 from 11 am to 3 pm, on AWS' campus at 46 Holland Road, Kennebunk. Presented by Maine Veterinary Medical Center and the Rarebreed family of veterinary partners, all festival proceeds, including sponsorships, donations, and sales from merchandise, raffles and beer garden benefit AWS' Companions for Life Fund dedicated to providing quality and affordable pet veterinary care.

Highlighting the entertainment at Woofstock is live music, including performances by the Kennebunk River Band (11 am – 1 pm) and local musician Kris Hype (1 pm – 3 pm). Seacoast Oldies, the festival's media sponsor, will also be providing tunes. In the Kids Zone, sponsored by Kennebunk Savings, youngsters can enjoy a bounce house, face painting, temporary tattoos, crafts and games. Pups can enjoy wading pools and games. There will also be non-alcoholic dog beer, sponsored by Cornerstone Artisanal Pizza and Craft Beer in Ogunquit, available for tasting and purchase. Dogs are also encouraged to try out an indoor agility course, led by members of AWS Canine Training Team. For the craft beer enthusiasts, attendees can purchase 4 oz tasting tickets to sample dozens of offerings from local craft breweries. The Beer Garden is sponsored by Blaze Brewing Company of Biddeford. Blaze will release their cream ale, Bark, especially for Woofstock. Bark is a collaborative fundraiser between Blaze and Meet York County and proceeds from sales benefit AWS. After the Festival, Bark will be available at fine retailers throughout Southern Maine. Other breweries expected to attend and offer

samples of their beers and ciders in the Beer Garden are After Harvest Cider Company, Allagash Brewing Company, Batson River Brewing & Distilling, Bissell Brothers, Brickyard Hollow Brewing Company, Corner Point Brewing Company, Footbridge Brewing, Liquid Riot, Lone Pine Brewing Co, Odd by Nature Brewing, Urban Farm Fermentory and Scott's Mac Wagon, Kona Ice of York County, Mr. Tuna, Pinky D's, Plot Twist Pretzels, Roaming Eats, and The Holy Donut. A variety of makers, crafters and area nonprofits will be on hand, selling a wide array of pet-related services, products and other homemade wares and showcasing their products and services.

Woodland Farms Brewery. Open throughout the festival, there will be ample food and dessert items for sale. Trucks and food vendors expected to attend include Betty ReeZ, WhoopieZ, Black Salt Food Truck, Char Wrig's Sno and Dough, Cob's Dogs Street Food, Great
