What makes your business special?

Rett's Roost has a unique and meaningful mission to be a source of hope and healing for families impacted by childhood cancer and child loss, offering holistic retreats and meaningful gatherings that create connection, while honoring the process of grief and the power of love.

Best thing you sell/serve/do?

Rett's Roost's signature retreats offer a free, intimate, immersive experience to connect families touched by childhood cancer and child loss. These overnight, in-person, multi-family retreats include therapeutic & healing services for parents and children in a peaceful location. Families take time to honor their experience, share and listen to one another, learn practical self-care techniques to help mitigate the emotional burden families of childhood cancer carry, and initiate valuable, long-lasting peer connections. Rett's Roost holds two community-focused in-person fundraisers each year, the Superhero Beach Fun Run/Walk on June 7th and the Ogunquit Home and Garden Tour on Sept 19th. Please check their website for more information on how you can attend as a participant or volunteer and support their work.

Something people don't realize about your business/services?

Childhood cancer is the number one disease killer of children and 1 out of 260 children under 20 will receive a cancer diagnosis. Nearly 1 in 5 of those children won't live five years from diagnosis. Treatments for childhood cancer are outdated and protocols for most kids are traumatic, often last 6 months to 2 years, and require long in-patient hospital stays. During this time, the family is under financial and emotional stress. Siblings are passed around so that parents can be with the sick child. Our retreats address the trauma of childhood cancer for every family member, and we offer myriad integrative therapies and other modalities that help show family members a path back to peace, joy, and balance.
